OF THE

Library of Choice Books

LATIN and ENGLISH,

Of the Reverend and Learned

Dr. RICHARD LEE,

of King's-Hatfield in Hertfordshire, deceased:

Which will be exposed (to Sale by way of Auction, or Out-cry, or who bids most) at the Parsonage-house in Hatfield, on Tuesday the 28th Day of April, 1685.

By the Appointment, and for the Benefit of Mrs. Eliz. Lee.

Catalogues are distributed gratis at the Coffee-Houses in St. Albans, Hertford, Ware, Barnet, in Hatfield, at the White Lion, to all Clergymen, Gentlemen, &c. that please to send or call for them. 1685.

To the READER.

THis Catalogue contains the Library of (Dr. Richard Lee of Kings-Hatfield in Hartfordshire, lately deceased) consisting of the various Editions of the Bible, in the Oriental Languages, several of the best Latin and Greek Fathers, Commentators Ancient and Modern, Latin and English, &c. of the most general Use, and greatest Esteem in their time, in all Volumes, (will be exposed to Sale by way of Auction, or who bids most) a Method of Sale so long practised, and still continued in great reputation with the Reverend and Learned Clergy of the City of London, that it hath incouraged and laid the Foundation of this attempt in the County of Hartford, not without some probable Prospect that the Worthy and Intelligent Clergy thereof, will heartily countenance, and readily promote so commendable an Essay, apparently tending to the Improvement of Learning in general, and so experimentally serviceable, and really beneficial to the Relicts and Executors of Divines, and Gentlemen, in the disposal of their Libraries.

This Sale will begin on Tuesday the 28th of April 1685. at the Parsonage-house in Hatfield, at One of the Clock exactly; and so continue daily, from 9 to 12 in the Morning, and from 2 to 7 in the Evening, till all the Books are sold: Therefore all Clergymen, Gentlemen, &c. are desired to be present exactly at the hour of Sale, the Books being sold in the order as Printed in the Catalogue, and those usually are, especially in this, the choicest.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he who bids moſt is the Buyer; and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book or Books ſhall forthwith be expoſed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe before they be taken away, the Buyer ſhall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That the Money for the Book or Books ſo bought, is to be paid by the Buyer at the time and place of Sale; where upon Payment thereof, the Book or Books ſhall be delivered.

IV. That the Books will be expoſed to view all Monday the 27th, and the preceding part of Tueſday, before the hour preſixt for Sale, to all Perſons that pleaſe to repair to the aforementioned Parſonage-houſe in Hatfield.

V. That for the Conveniency of Clergymen, Gentlemen, &c. that cannot poſſibly be preſent in Perſon, or by Proxy, if they pleaſe to ſend their Commiſſion in time, with Directions to the Parſonage-houſe in Hatfield, a diſtinct Account of the Number and Page of any Book or Books that they deſire to have bought, and the Price they will give, ſignifying their Names and place of Abode, it ſhall be faithfully managed for them by the Perſons attending the Auction.
